Current NRA Smallbore Rifle Rules will govern throughout. The Caliber .22 Rim Fire as defined in NRA Rule 3.2 applies. NRA Rule 3.21 Empty Chamber Indicator Will Be Used and Enforced

Open to any individual member of the NRA or non member. Junior competitors may be members of the NRA or members of a NRA affiliated Junior Rifle Club or Non members

The NRA classification system will be used in all matches. Individuals who have not been classified will fire in the Master Class. Rule 19.6 (assigned classification) or Rule 19.2 (temporary classification) may be used. Non members will be assigned a number for classification Only.

Official NRA Targets (A-23 A-25 and A-26) will be used. All targets will be displayed. Competitors will hang their targets and furnish their own clips.

Separate class awards will be given in each of three categories, Service, Civilian and Junior, subject to LRRC Award schedule. Members of the USA Armed Forces and Reserves will comprise the Service category. (Rule 2.5, 2.6 and 2.7) All others are either Civilians (Rule 2.2) or Juniors (Rule 2.3) Classes and Categories may be combined (Rule 19.8).

A challenge fee of $1.00 will be charged for each challenge made. See NRA (Rules Section 16)
All Challenge Times will be posted on the Official Scoreboard

All matches will be squadded. Squadding tickets will be issued upon registration at club office. Failure of a competitor to obtain his squadding ticket or present himself at the proper firing Point when his relay is called may lose his right to compete in that event.

NRA membership and classification cards must be shown before squadding tickets will be issued

Entries in individual events will be made by using the enclosed Entry card, with Check or money order made payable to Louisville Rifle & Revolver Club, or by calling F.N.Bryan. Please indicate your NRA member number and classification.
