New shooters: We must submit a roster of shooters before every match listing name of shooter, make of rifle and serial number of rifle. If you are a new League shooter or if you have a different rifle from last season, please submit this information to Ed Mahecha (emahecha@verizon.net) as soon as possible otherwise we will assume that your information remains the same. Rifles will be checked against the roster at the vehicle inspection point. New shooters must also provide a completed Waiver and Release of Liability Form .

Directions to West Point Remember that entry to the USMA campus is permitted only through the Stony Lonesome gate.

In addition to vehicle drivers having a photo ID, the West Point Force Protection Office requires that a roster of those vehicles which will be carrying rifles be submitted no later than the Thursday before a match. The information needed is: Name of individual driving, make & model of vehicle, state, and license plate numbers. Once established, the same roster will be submitted before each match unless you notify us of a change. Please send this information to Ed Mahecha (emahecha@verizon.net) ASAP. Take into account any car pooling which may take place during the season. Better to have all possible vehicles listed.
